TODAY'S GUEST SPEAKER

Anne is a native of the State of Michigan. She moved to the D.C. area in 2003 to work at the Pentagon for eight years before retiring after thirty-six years working for federal civil service. She attended Leland Seminary in Arlington, Virginia, to earn a Master's Degree in Theological Studies. Lately, she has earned a Doctor of Ministry degree from Mercer University, Atlanta, Georgia. Currently her ministry is chaplaincy at both Reagan and Dulles airport chapels. She provides short Sunday worship times to travelers and is amazed how many non-church goers attend those chapel worship services. She has learned that God truly meets people where they are at.

Scripture Reading

Seek the Lord while he may be found; call on him while he is near.

As the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and so not return to it without watering the earth and making it bud and flourish, so that it yields seed for the sower and bread for the eater, so is my word that goes out from my mouth: It will not return to me empty, but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it.

Isaiah 55:6, 10-11 NIV
